JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

PRESERVATION OF MEATS AND FRUITS.

Under the above caption, the New Orleans Times of the 13th instant has the subjoined editorial on the discovery of a new process for the preservation of fruits and meats.

The Times says:

A discovery of the utmost importance, not only to the South, but to the world, is about to be brought into practical application. We refer to Lieut. Fry's process by which decay can be arrested in meat as well as in many kinds of vegetables and fruit, and the articles so operated on can be preserved for years, if necessary, without any material loss of their nutritive qualities or natural aroma. We have seen samples of beef, obtained in Poydras Market two years ago, which have not undergone a particle of decay, though never salted nor subjected to the action of foreign chemical agents. By simply placing this meat in water it will reabsorb the moisture which had been expelled from it, and it practically becomes as fresh as when originally taken from the shambles.

The cost of preparation and preservation under this new process is far less than that of salting and packing, as heretofore practiced, and the virtues of the meat are much more effectually retained. In fruit, such as bananas, pineapples, etc., which, in their natural condition, are most perishable commodities, this process is equally effective, as, without adding materially to their cost, it will render it possible for such articles to be transported from the tropics to the North with entire safety, and thereby greatly cheapen them to consumers.

At a single point in Texas, one hundred and fifty beeves are slaughtered daily for their hides and tallow, the meat being thrown away as valueless. Under such circumstances, meat can be obtained at an almost nominal price, and if it can be preserved by Fry's process at a cost of say one tenth of a cent per pound, and transported in closely compressed bales at a much lower rate than meat can be taken to market in any other condition, the advantages of the discovery will become at once apparent. Cuba annually consumes immense quantities of jerked beef, brought principally from South America. This beef is almost as tasteless as wood shavings, and if any more savory and equally cheap substitute could be introduced, it would at once command the market. On the jerked beef sent annually to Havanna a profit of a single cent per pound would amount to over $100,000. This single fact shows the importance and value of the trade foreshadowed by this new discovery.

It being demonstrated that decay in wood could be prevented by the action of superheated steam, Lieut. Fry extended his experiments to other articles. From these experiments he discovered that beef partially desiccated in a vacuum, at a temperature removed from the point at which fermentation takes place, and yet below that at which it cooks—by merely drying the albumen—will remain perfectly sweet during the hottest weather and through every change in climate. The cost of the apparatus is trifling; the raw material is abundant, and may be had almost for the asking, while the product cannot fail to have a commanding value in Cuba, in China, and indeed in all portions of the world where cheap meat is one of the pressing necessities of the people.

Though as yet in its incipiency, we look to Lieut. Fry's discovery as calculated to immensely enlarge the boundaries of our trade. To Texas it will prove an exhaustless mine of wealth, and to the world a benefaction of the very highest value.

THE MEDITATED WRONG UPON VIRGINIA.—We learn that a brother of Governor Walker, of Virginia, now in this city, recently had an interview with Gen. Canby, in which the latter distinctly declared his purpose to enforce the test oath against the members of the Legislature. The object of Mr. Walker's call upon Gen. Canby was to ascertain his real intentions, concerning which many conflicting statements have appeared in print. Gen. Canby told his visitor that Virginia could not be regarded as a State de facto until after her Senators were elected and admitted to Congress.—Therefore, the new constitution which abrogates the test oath was not now in force, and members of the General Assembly (although elected under it) could not be exempted from taking the oath. Beyond this important point, the military ruler of Virginia did not choose to be very communicative. It is evident that he is waiting for more precise instructions from Washington; and it may be that he will have to wait for some time yet. The cabinet seem to be split up on the subject. The more conservative portion such as Gov. Fish and Generals Rawlins and Cox, are said to oppose the test oath tyranny, but are overawed by such fiery radicals as Boutwell and Hoar, and the outside pressure of radical Senators and Congressmen. President Grant is represented as on the fence, ready to tip either way according to the preponderance of advice, but we cannot lend full credence to that statement. There is no doubt, however, that a plot is meditated by which all the fruits of the late Virginia elections are to be destroyed, and that the present delay is only the hesitation natural to men possessing some degree of conscience as they stand on the brink of intended wrong-doing. N. Y. Jour. of Com.

It is established, beyond doubt, that a Dr. Witherwax died, recently, in Iowa, from lead poison conveyed through the system by the use of hair dye. The fact that the majority of hair dyes are largely composed of lead preparations, and are extremely dangerous and injurious, has been published over and over again since it became the fashion for people to use these compounds. The Express has stated the fact, with particulars of proof, many times. But these statements do not appear to have frightened anybody out of the notion of having blue black hair and whiskers. Hair dye is a fill in great demand, even among those who have no gray hairs to hide, but who think unnatural inky black hirsute appendages better than the natural red or "sandy" ones. The danger of death from the use of these poisonous preparations is of course not great. The case of the Iowa victim is to be viewed as an exception. But instead of death, we have painful sicknesses, and often paralysis of superior and inferior muscles; congestions, and aches and twinges, to which those of gout and rheumatism are kindnesses. Abjure hair dyes.—New York Express.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented, and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry, and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it, one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. F. Round, Superintendent of Infant Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and we sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

Sold by dealers generally, to whom liberal discounts are made.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 26, 1869.

"QUESTIONS."

The Standard is exercised because, as it says, the SENTINEL did not answer some questions propounded by it several days ago. It is our opinion that the Standard could have seen answers to its questions in our columns, since they were asked, if it read our remarks on its own course in regard to recent political events in Virginia and Tennessee. But these answers, it seems, are not sufficiently categorical for the Standard, therefore, we proceed to answer more explicitly.

1st. "Which of the Virginia candidates does the SENTINEL favor?"

Answer. The SENTINEL was in favor of Walker for Governor, and those on the same ticket for the other offices of that State.

The SENTINEL was influenced in this preference by two considerations: First, because the Walker party were in favor of restoring to the free white men of the State all the rights of which they had theretofore been deprived by the Radical extremists, or Wells party, thus removing one of the strong objections against negro suffrage; and secondly, because we saw the Standard had a leaning towards the Wells faction prior to the election, and we knew, and can prove, that Gov. Holden, Deweese, Laflin and others, of the Radical leaders in this State considered the Wells party as identical with the Republican party in North Carolina, and knowing the views of these leaders and of the Standard on the subject of the removal of political disabilities, as manifested all along up to that time, we naturally felt a preference for Walker and the party which supported him over the 'Wells extremists," as the Standard finds it popular now to denominate them.

2nd. "Does the SENTINEL support either candidate?"

Ans. The SENTINEL could not support either candidate, not being in that State, further than to exercise a preference and give its sympathy to the liberal party and its candidates, as stated above, and for the reasons given.

3rd. "If it does, when did it make its flip-flap?"

Ans. Not being versed in the slang vernacular of our neighbor, we are not sure we understand the interrogatory, but, if he means to ask, when our preference for Walker over Wells,—for the more liberal policy of the one over the malignant proscriptiveness of the other, commenced, we answer, many weeks before the Standard made its "flip flap,"—yes, as soon as the platforms were announced and the candidates nominated.

4th. "Both the candidates in Tennessee proclaim universal suffrage and claim to be Republicans; Stokes was against the carpet-baggers, Senter in favor of them. Can the SENTINEL support either of them?"

Ans. There is no difficulty in choosing the least of two evils, when one is obliged to take one or the other. The Senter party of Tennessee, promising to remove the onerous and odious proscription imposed upon a hundred thousand of her free white citizens by the administration and influence of the "god-like" Brownlow, as Holden called him not long since, we could, for the sake of this one good result, give the preference to Senter over the proscriptive Stokes, although the latter had the favor and prestige of the administration at Washington, (with which the Standard claims to be in full fellowship,) to back him.

5th. "If it can, when did it accomplish its summersault?"

Ans. The Standard is somewhat like an old fellow we knew once, who thought that getting drunk was a necessary consequence of going to Muster. That paper seems to think it necessary to "accomplish a summersault" every time it takes a position on a political question presented. Which, indeed, does seem necessary with the Standard, as it seldom takes a position without a preliminary gymnastic exhibition of that kind.

6th. "All these parties, by adopting the universal suffrage platform, have now taken the same ground as has been occupied by the Republican party of North Carolina for over two years. The Sentinel has always abused all parties that supported universal suffrage. Does it now support the principles which it has before condemned?"

Ans. The Standard seems to forget that the "universal suffrage platform" has been enlarged so as to embrace "universal amnesty" and the removal of all political disabilities from white men hitherto proscribed—and to forget also, that the Republican party in North Carolina has not been supporting a platform with that feature in it, "for the last two years" nor, for the last two months. We contend that the Republican party was tyrannical in its proscription in the start, and that every hour of its continuance was a wrong, and we were glad to see the wrong undone, whatever the instrumentality. If a pickpocket robs you of your purse, with money and valuables in it, you are glad to get it back at the sacrifice of a reward "and no questions asked," if you can do no better. Does the Standard see the application?

7th. "If so, when did it turn over?"

Ans. We are not aware of having "turned over" at all. What we call turning over is, to do as the Standard has done: first favor Wells and then shout for Walker; first to oppose resolutions in the Legislature recommending the removal of disabilities, and then to advocate universal amnesty; first to pledge "the last man and the last dollar" in defence of secession, and to abuse all who tried to make the pledge good; first to claim "universal amnesty" as its platform for the last two years, and then acknowledge in its controversy with the Times that its advocacy of that policy dates from the first of July; and finally, to turn in such a manner as to be with the liberal movement in Mississippi, and at the same time with the administration that opposes that policy. This is what we call turning.

We have some more answers on hand; when the "Standard" wants some it can have them.

NOT A RADICAL TRIUMPH.

The Radical papers are trying to draw comfort from Tennessee. They claim Senter as a National Republican, &c. They do not state that his opponent, Stokes, was the Radical Grant negro equality candidate. The administration leaders at Washington too, feel beaten. They do not take comfort at the result. A cotemporary thus expresses himself on the matter:

There is one fact connected with the recent election in Virginia and Tennessee, which should not be overlooked. No matter what the victories may be called, it is admitted that the result will be the enfranchisement of nearly one hundred thousand white men, who, during the past four years, have had no voice in the management of the affairs of the country. They were disfranchised by Radicals for political gain, and in every case where one of them unfortunates has been willing to endorse Radicalism, his disabilities have been removed.—Their enfranchisement is due to the Democratic party and to Democratic votes. For special purposes, the Democratic party in the South has been willing to appear to be dead. We believe that the best of results will follow.

It is difficult to tell what are and what are not Republican principles. That party disfranchised the ablest white men of the South. It has never done anything as an organization to enfranchise them. The Democratic party opposed this persecution and has always favored their enfranchisement. And now the point is carried, it is rather difficult to see how it can be twisted into a Republican triumph.

Arrival of Prince Arthur—Quickest Passage on Record—Reception of the Prince—Immense enthusiasm.

HALIFAX, N. S., August 22.—His Royal Highness Prince Arthur, of England, arrived this morning. The steamship City of Paris was signaled at 7½ o'clock, and reached Secton's wharf at 9.55. As soon as the steamer was signaled the Citadel raised all its flags. Every naval and merchant vessel in the harbor, especially the Inman streamer City of Halifax, was decorated with steamers and bunting; flags also waved over the public buildings. The day was magnificent, warm and sunny as one could wish. Two companies of the 78th Highlanders, under Col. Mackenzie, formed the guard of honor, the full band of the Highlanders (60 pieces) also being present. The streets in the vicinity were crowded, but none were admitted to the wharf except the officers of the government.

When the steamer was secured to the wharf, Governor General Sir John Young, Lieut. Governor Sir Hastings Doyle, Cols. Mackenzie, Ansel, McNeil, Quartermaster Gen. Baynes, Capt. Black, Lieut. Ponsonby and Mr. Turville, the Governor General's secretary, immediately went on board and greeted the party. They soon returned, followed by his Royal Highness Prince Arthur, K. G., Col. Elphinstone, R. E., the Prince's Governor, and Lieut. Pickard.—The appearance of the Prince, as he stepped over the side of the vessel, his fine, handsome face, half covered with light brown curling whiskers, elicited hearty cheers and warm admiration. The band played the national anthem, and the Prince immediately entered the carriage with Sir John Young and Sir Hastings Doyle, and was driven to the Government House. The four servants remained to look after the luggage, for although the Prince's baggage has arrived at Quebec, he brought fifty nine pieces with him. He attended a special service in the garrison chapel at 5½ o'clock. An extra guard has been detached to the front of the Government House.

The formal landing will take place at Her Majesty's docket-yard to morrow, when the Prince will be received by Governor General Sir John Young, Admiral Mundy, Vice-Admiral Wellesly, Lieutenant Governor Sir Hastings Doyle, the Judges of the Supreme Court, and the members of the local and provincial governments. An address will be presented by Major Tobin, the bells will be rung, and there will be an illumination in the evening.

The "City of Paris" made the trip in six days, eleven hours and a half—the quickest time on record by seven hours and a-half. The Prince occupied the first cabin in common with the other passengers, took his meals at the same table, and was very affable, courteous and ready to talk with any one on the passage.

A YOUNG MAN TAKES TWO YEAR'S NAP, AWAKENS AND ASKS "IS BREAKFAST READY!"—We are informed that a young man living in the lower part of this county was taken sick about two years ago, and fell into deep sleep, from which he only woke about two weeks since. The first expression he made use of on coming too was, "Is breakfast ready!" just as though he had been sleeping but one night. A physician had been attending on him all the time and happened in just after he awoke. On walking up to the bed he called the patient by name, remarking that "You must feel better, as your cheeks have more color," to which he replied by asking, "Who are you?" On being informed that he was a physician who had been attending him constantly for two years, he could hardly believe his senses. During his sleep he has been fed regularly with spoon victuals, as though he was conscious. He is now up, enjoying good health, and busily engaged in trying to get the events of the past two years posted in his mind, that he may unite them with the past and present. He has distinct recollection of everything up to the time of going to sleep. We have heard no explanation of this case of "Rip Van Winkleism."—Madison Indiana Courier.

There will likely be a heavy demand in England for American wheat, the crop of cereal being comparatively short and poor throughout Great Britain.

It is said that the head waiter of one of the leading hotels at Newport boasts that his fees from guests average $100 per day. These subsidies are for choice seats at the table, and special service there in the way attention catables.

ARMED RESISTANCE TO LEGAL PROCESS—GENERAL GRANT'S ORDERS.

During the last Presidential campaign General Frank P. Blair, the Democratic candidate for Vice President, predicted that if General Grant should be elected, he would never quietly resign the great power of his office after it should be once placed in his hands, but, under one pretence or another, would make himself Emperor.—This prediction General Blair professed to base upon his intimate knowledge of Gen. Grant's character. He ridiculed the frequent idea of Grant as a simpleton, and declared him to be a man of cunning and unlimited ambition. At the time this prediction of General Blair's was made, it was but little heeded. Few believed that it had any solid and substantial foundation!

Gen. Grant has recently performed one public act much more becoming the head of an unlimited monarchy than a republican president, He has addressed an official letter to a civil officer of the United States, authorizing and requesting him to use all means to resist his own arrest. The officer acted up to the letter of his instructions, and surrounded himself with a body of United States soldiers fully armed and equipped, and prepared to resist the service upon himself of any process issued by a State Court.

The letter to which we refer was addressed by President Grant to Francis C. Barlow, the United States Marshal for this district, and is as follows:

Gen. Barlow, United States Marshal, Southern District of New York:

I hereby direct you to maintain the laws of the United States, and to resist all efforts to take J. H. Pratt from your custody, whether by order of Judge McCunn or any other officer of the State Courts. I also authorize and request you to use all means to resist the attempt to effect your arrest and stop the execution of the laws of the United States.

U. S. GRANT, President.

This is quite different from what it would have been had it only directed Marshal Barlow to retain his prisoner. It directs him to resist his own arrest. It assumes the power, in time of peace, to exempt from the jurisdiction of the State courts a civil officer of the United States.

If Gen. Grant has this power—if he can exempt a man from punishment for one offence, he can exempt him from punishment for any other offence. If he can exempt a man from punishment for contempt of court, he can exempt him from punishment for murder.

At the time this order of General Grant's was issued the prisoner Pratt, whom Barlow was directed to keep at all hazards, was safely locked up in a fort of the United States, where he was securely guarded.—Marshal Barlow was threatened with arrest for contempt of the Superior Court of this State; and it was to guard against this that he kept around him for days—and as it now appears by order of the President—one hundred and fifty armed men.

Corruption and usurpation are apt to go together, and they are fit associates. After seeing public offices conferred by President Grant in return for presents, it would hardly be surprising to see him assert any degree of personal authority.—New York Sun.

The Virginia question of receiving the Conservative members, announcing the result of the State election, allowing Governor Walker to take his seat, &c., is to be put off until after the October elections. General Grant, in a similar case in Georgia, found no occasion for delay, none for indecision, and none for consulting an Attorney General. All liberal Republicans admit that it was in contemplation of the law even as enacted by the Radical Congress, that members elect of the Legislature of Virginia derive their authority and power from the new Constitution, and are therefore created by the act of Congress which controls and which submitted the Constitution to the voters of Virginia, for adoption or rejection, and that this being the case, the test oath is not applicable.

All Republicans, too, who feel that public opinion will not endure this outrage upon a popular election, are urgent that the threatened injustice should not be put into execution. For the sake of the country and Virginia too, we protest against the wrong, but on party accounts nothing could better show, and as an argument not to be resisted, the faithlessness and inconsistency of Radical government.—N. Y. Express.

THE WATER SCARCITY.—There was nothing in the existing state of affairs yesterday, appertaining to the scarcity of water at Fairmount, to indicate ought else than that there will probably shortly be no supply at all from the Fairmount reservoir, if the Great Dispenser of every good does not favor us with a copious supply of rain.—This is rendered doubly certain from the excessive heat of yesterday, naturally increasing the demand for the fluid, and making the prescribed economy a thing of necessity and not of choice.

To-day, orders have been given against waste. There is nothing to hope for but rain, and a plenty of it. To-morrow morning prayers will be offered for it from every pulpit in the city.—Philadelphia Enquirer, Aug. 21st.

CAPPING THE CLIMAX.—The Charleston Courier is informed by a correspondent that in the upper part of South Carolina there lives a young ex-Confederate soldier, whose leg was amputated, during the war, near the thigh. After amputation the wound rapidly healed, and he was sent home.—About a year after a fleshy protuberance was seen to grow out of the flesh, which in the course of a few months, took the shape of a foot, and since that time it has been growing from his thigh, which, in a year or so, promises to supply the loss of his leg in the first instance. If this be true, it is the most wonderful freak of Dame Nature that has ever come to our notice.

REMARKABLE THUNDER STORM.—A remarkable thunder storm burst over Montreal on Thursday night. The lightning was fearful, and 3,763 inches of rain fell, which is without precedent in Canada. The village of St. Laurento and the lowlands in the vicinity were flooded, and long after the rain had ceased to fall the water continued to rush down the mountain slopes and down the Cote des Neiges hill as when a sudden thaw melts the snow in spring.

More cattle are shipped by Morgan county (Illinois) dealers to the New York market than from any other twenty counties in the Mississippi valley. Three cattle dealers have shipped during the last twelve months, over sixty five thousand head of cattle, which cost, in the aggregate, five millions of dollars.

The Richmond papers deny, on the authority of Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, the statement that he has written a letter urging that no person be elected to the United States Senate from Virginia until after the disabilities of those proscribed by the fourteenth amendment are removed.

In the Mississippi river trade there are now 910 steamers, with a capacity of 292,174 tons, and valued at $24,556,000.

A deficiency of $18,000 has been discovered in the coiners' department of the San Francisco Mint.

GETTYSBURG RE-UNION—ATTENDANCE SMALL—BUT ONE CONFEDERATE OFFICER PRESENT.

GETTYSBURG, August 23.—An arch, decorated with evergreens, was prepared to be erected in honor of visitors, and under which they were to pass, but while the workmen were engaged in placing it in position it fell to pieces. The fragments were removed, and the national flag was displayed from a staff in the centre of the square, and near by it were colors torn to ribbons in the battle. These, and a company of zouaves, constituted the only public display. This military organization acted as an escort.

A number of officers arrived at noon, and, after dinner at the Springs, a few of them repaired to the field on which they had participated in the contest, and explained to friends who accompanied them incidents of the battle. Numerous private parties engaged available carriages to convey them to various parts of the battle ground. The press of New York, Philadelphia, Washington, and other cities, is represented.

The arrivals at the Springs to-day include the following named gentlemen: First corps, Gens. Robinson, Meredith, Leonard, Dana and Hoffman; Cols. Heidraper, Dudley and Deckart; Major J. M. Lindley, Surgeon Anowalt. Third corps, Gens. Graham, W. Burling and Medill; Cols. Bonafan, Burns and Linnard. Fifth corps, Gen. McCandless, Col. Ricketts. Eleventh corps, Gen. Von Amsburg and Colonel Asmusser, chief of staff to Gen. Howard, Major J. F. Fruteauff. Twelfth corps, Gens. Kane and J. F. Selfridge, Majors Humphreys and W. Selfridge. Besides the above, Majors Dolgeith and Hunter have arrived. None of the officers of the second or sixth corps have yet reached here.

Col. Walter Harrison, of Richmond, Va., Adjutant General of Gen. Picketts division during and after the operations around Gettysburg, is the only ex-Confederate officer here. Gen. R. E. Lee, on the 5th of August, wrote to the Secretary of the Battle Field Memorial Association that he had received an invitation to be present for the purpose of marking upon the ground by enduring memorials of granite the positions and movements of the armies on the field, and adds:

"My engagements will not permit me to be present. I believe, if there, I could not add anything material to the information existing on that subject. I think it wisest, moreover, not to keep open the sores of war, but to follow the example of those nations who endeavored to obliterate the marks of civil strife, and to commit to oblivion the feelings it engendered." Gen. Fitzhugh Lee said in reply to the invitation extended to him, which letter was sent through Gen. R. E. Lee: "It will not be in my power to be present, but any information I possess will be cheerfully rendered. If the nation is to continue as a whole it is better to forget and forgive rather than perpetuate in granite proofs of its civil wars."

The exploration of the battle-field will commence to-morrow. A meeting of officers was held to-night, and suggestions made as to the plan of operations.

A survey of the battle-field was being made under the direction of General Warren. It embraces thirty square miles. The General says that he will furnish a perfect map of the field.

Their was an interchange of views as to where the proceedings should be conducted. Colonel Bachelder, of New York, mentioned that he had published a programme, which had been circulated in the New York and New England papers with a view to the accommodation of officers. The meeting finally adopted the plan of Col. Bachelder, as follows:

To-morrow the positions of the first day's battle will be completed. On Wednesday Culp's Hill and Cemetery Hill and vicinity. On Thursday the positions on the left, including the apple orchard, peach orchard, wheat field, round tops and intermediate points. On Friday the several lines of the third day's battle. On Saturday the cavalry operations. Among the latest arrivals are Gen. Sweetzer and Major Walters, both of the fifth corps, and Captain D. E. Castle, of the signal corps.—Bal. Sun.

A RADICAL CALUMNY.

There is an intellectual obliquity about the man (Andrew Johnson) which leads him naturally to crooked moral notions. The best way to turn him from the error of his ways would be to present him with a few thousand dollars' worth of bombs. If that didn't open his eyes he must be blind indeed. He may not have much respect for the purses of other people, but we will warrant his affection for his own.—[N. Y. Tribune.

What right have you thus flippantly and vaguely to charge Andrew Johnson with being influenced in his action by money? On what specific occasion did you or any member of your party ever dare to stamp a deed of his as the result of bribery? Can you name and will you undertake to name, or will any one undertake to name for you, such an occasion in any portion of his public or his private life? What reason have you to believe, that, during his administration, he ever received or sought one dollar beyond his legal salary? Was he ever in the habit of taking gifts of the value of thousands of dollars and rewarding the givers with office? Did he ever, by his practice, cause it to be generally understood that the most certain mode of obtaining a valuable place from him was to make a valuable present to him? Could it ever be alleged with truth that a majority of the members of his Cabinet or even any of them were men to whom, at the time of his appointment of them, he was indebted for private contributions? In the only known instances in which gifts were proffered to him, were not those gifts rejected?

We repeat, then, oh editor of the Tribune, what right have you to charge Andrew Johnson with acting from mercenary motives? What more right have you to charge him with this thing than every man living has to charge you with the same thing? Can't you, supporter as you are of Grant, have the grace to be ashamed of yourself?—Courier Journal.

Abbott of New Hampshire, the surreptitious North Carolina Senator who had that little dirt throwing with Sprague, lately attempted to bully another man, this time in North Carolina, whereupon the affronted person hauled him up with a round turn in the shape of a peremptory challenge. On this the carpet bag man writes a long letter setting forth how grievously his challenger has wronged him, and winding up with the cheerful non sequitur, "I am ready to meet the question fairly and honorably and amicably, and concede where I am met by concession." This in answer to a challenge! "I, therefore," say that I am prepared to make a satisfactory retraction and apology for my own language when I see any indication that I shall be afterwards met by a similar temper on your part." This being utterly rejected, and a categorical reply demanded, he eats the leek, root and stem. It is now time for him to subside and not ape the chivalry again. If they wrote they also fought. If there was a good deal of thunder there was also at times a little blood. But this fellow hails at the harmless hail.—N. Y. World.

Obituary.

Died, in Kinston, N. C., Saturday morning Aug. 21st, 1869, MRS ANN ELIZA, wife of Reuben Wallace, aged 52 years.

Mrs. Wallace was the immediate grand-daughter of Richard Caswell, first Governor of North Carolina. Her health was ordinarily very good. A few weeks ago she was taken with Bilious Fever, which, in spite of the exertions of a skillful physician, finally proved fatal. She was an affectionate wife and mother, and a kind and benevolent neighbor. For thirty-five years a pious and devoted member of the M. E. Church, she possessed a large heart full of love to God, to her church, its Ministry and full of sympathy for the poor. A high-minded, generous, noble-hearted Christian lady; none exhibited more of the true excellencies of the female character than she. Her death is a calamity to the Church and to the community. Yet we sorrow not as those who have no hope; but our hope is well grounded that what is our loss is her eternal gain,—that while the Church below has lost one of its most acceptable members, the Church above has received her, where

Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,

Our Grand Drawing, advertised to come off on Saturday, the 28th instant, has been postponed, for the first time, by order of the Board of Directors, in order to remodel the scheme to meet the urgent and almost numberless demands of our patrons, who are desirous that Real Estate Prizes may take the places of those of a personal character. This course, the Board of Directors are assured, will meet with universal approbation. And the postponement is also deemed advisable, in order to allow Agents, who have not yet disposed of all their tickets, to do so at once, and make prompt returns, that a day certain may be appointed for the drawing. Tickets already sold will hold good.

JULY 1ST, 1869.

Amount of Assets $12,000,000.00.

DIVISIBLE SURPLUS $2,675,999.48,

AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.

ALL THE SURPLUS OF THE COMPANY DIVIDED AMONG THE ASSURED.

DIVIDENDS DECLARED AND PAID ANNUALLY ON THE CONTRIBUTION PLAN.

ALL POLICIES (AFTER TWO FULL PAYMENTS) NON-FORFEITABLE, AND SO EXPRESSED ON EACH POLICY.

No Restrictions as to Residence and Travel in the United States.

RATES LOWER THAN ANY OTHER COMPANY THAT PAYS DIVIDENDS TO POLICY-HOLDERS.

IT ISSUES ALL THE VARIOUS FORMS OF LIFE AND ENDOWMENT POLICIES.

LOSSES PAID PROMPTLY IN CASH.

LIST OF LOSSES ACTUALLY PAID BY THE ÆTNA LIFE INS. CO., AT THE BRANCH OFFICE, IN RALEIGH, BY THE HANDS OF W. H. CROW, GENERAL MANAGER OF THE STATE AND PART OF VA.

And $5,000 ready to pay a loss of No. 34,161, so soon as the party authorized to receive the money appears.

The Company has been well tested throughout the State, as to its promptness in paying her losses, reliability, &c.

DIVIDENDS PAID AT THE END OF THE FIRST YEAR, AND ANNUALLY THEREAFTER.

Its ratio of expense to income is extremely low. This may be seen by reference to the Official Reports for 1868. For example:

EXPENSE ON THE $100 RECEIVED.

KNICKERBOCKER,	$16,54
EQUITABLE,	17,44
NORTH AMERICA,	21,16
BROOKLYN,	21,09
UNIVERSAL,	27,24
JOHN HANCOCK,	18,27
THE NATIONAL,	63,48
THE ÆTNA,	13,41

It has an IMPORTANT NEW FEATURE that has been copy-righted. According to this plan the rates are MUCH LOWER than in any other Company in the world.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868, than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 589 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed nett assets summing up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,337 new policies, more than any other Company, except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The reader will find an interesting column of new advertisements this morning, to which we would direct special attention.

The old and established house of Armstrong, Cator & Co., of Baltimore, offers an attractive stock of Millinery and Fancy Goods, Ribbons, &c.

Glen Echo Mills, Carpetings, Oil Cloths and Mattings, Warehouse, 509 Chesnut St., Phila.

Lynn Adams addresses his old friends and customers, offering them a stock of desirable hardware and groceries, and his experience of 30 years in the commission line.

BOOKS, at the old N. C. Book Store—indispensable books for all township officers and other public functionaries, read the list.

Caution against harboring a runaway apprentice.

Opening of Mrs. Ellen Mordecai's School on Sept. 3rd.

Change in time of the large drawing of the N. C. Real and Personal Estate Agency, substitution of prizes.

Early Turnip Seed at J. A. Jones' Book Store. It is time they were sown.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Peters Brothers of Portsmouth notify those who use coal that they are prepared to furnish all kinds of the article.

J. M. Towles, Auctioneer, will sell ten fine young horses at auction on Friday, Aug. 27th.

Judge Brooks arrived in the city yesterday morning from the western part of the State, where he has been holding Courts, and stopped at the Yarborough House.

HOUSES.—We are hearing inquiries almost daily by persons wanting houses, generally of the cheaper class, if we know where there are any for rent. It seems there is great demand for small cottages, such as will come within the means of mechanics, and others, whose income will not justify the paying of very high rent. We have no doubt there are scores of houses in the city, occupied each by two or more families, for the lack of small, cheap houses, that would enable each family to rent for itself. The erection of such houses, by those who have the means, would prove a great convenience to many, and would be a profitable investment.

STATE FAIR—CHIEF MARSHAL.—Gen. W. Gaston Lewis, of Edgecombe county, and Chief Engineer of the Williamston and Tarborough Railroad Company, has accepted the appointment, unanimously tendered him by the Executive Committee, of Chief Marshal of the N. C. State Fair, in October.

We do not believe a more appropriate selection could have been made. Gen. Lewis is exactly the man for the office; fitted for it by his firmness, urbanity, quick perception of the propriety of things and his extensive acquaintance and great popularity throughout the State. The Committee are taking step after step to render the Fair, not only a mere success, but an occasion of unusual interest, profit and pleasure to those who may attend.

MORE ENTERPRISE.—We learn that our enterprising fellow citizen, B. P. Williamson, Esq., has purchased the western end of the lot of Mrs. James Taylor, on Hargett Street, adjoining the lot of Quest. Busbee, Esq., for the purpose of erecting thereon, a family residence. We shall look for something superb in the architectural line, when that building shall be completed.

WE have had laid on our table, a pamphlet entitled "Resources of North Carolina—its natural wealth, condition and advantages, as existing in 1869," published by Bannister, Cowan & Co, New York and Wilmington. It is neatly gotten up and contains much matter of information in regard to the agricultural, mineral and manufacturing resources of the State, statistics, &c.

NEW MAP.—Mr. C. T. Wood is now in the City soliciting subscribers to Watson's new map of the United States and Territories, for which Mr. J. A. Jones, Bookseller, Fayetteville Street, is general Agent in the State. These maps embrace the latest changes in the civil or political geography of the country; are very correct in its physical delineations, being compiled from reliable official resources, and embraces a large amount of general and useful information on the subjects of population, Railroads, &c. With a view to large sales and to put the map within the reach of almost every family, the prices of these maps have been put at a low figure,—from $1 to $3. Mr. Wood, a young man of energy, will remain a few days for the purpose of calling on our citizens and giving all a chance of procuring maps.

LOOKS DESOLATE.—We passed the old Standard office yesterday, and everything about it had such a desolate, sad, and deserted look that it brought a shade of gloom over our feelings. We reverted in memory to the time when it was the resort of many whose names have gilded our State's history—men of high intellect and integrity and of widespread reputation; a time when the Standard was a power in the land, and its editor a man who felt himself at home with the noblest of our statesmen. The Governor was sitting on his piazza, looking over towards the old office, and we imagined that some such thoughts as the above were passing through his mind, too.

Now—but we will draw a veil over the scene; the old days can never come back, and the new will never equal them.

SPOTTED STOCK.—One of our enterprising Fayetteville Street merchants, seeing a countryman driving a "chickasaw" to a wagon through the the street, a few days ago, hailed him to know if he wanted to sell.

"Wal, yes," said the countryman, "ef I could get his vally, I don't know but I mout sell him; I've got too many hosses, any how; but the old 'oman'd be mighty riled, ef I was to sell him."

"What do you ask?" was the next question.

"Wal, you see, he's a mighty good hoss, and I hate to part with him, any how, but, I'm obleged to have some money, and I sould sell him."

"Well, what's your price?" again asked the merchant.

"He's a mighty good hoss, and a mighty uncommon hoss, and I hate to part with him, but I sould take a hundred and twenty five dollars for him."

"O, he's not worth that, but I'll tell you what I will do—I'll give you forty for him."

The countryman scratched his head, bewailed the necessity, that he was "obleged to have money," and he concluded to take the forty dollars.

The money was paid and the spotted animal passed over to the new owner. An hour afterward, the countryman was seen on Wilmington street, inviting some of his friends to "take something," declaring he didn't mind expense, as he had "got clear of that d—d old pie-bald at four times as much as he gin for him."

As the horse is rather lean, perhaps from bad digestion, we suggest a diet of soft corn and lager, especially the latter, as it is said to be a great promoter of health and appetite.

GOING AHEAD.—The grading on the Chatham Railroad is being pushed on vigorously. The work is nearly finished to the terminus on the R. & G. Road, back of B. P. Williamson's Foundry, where the Depot is to be.

It would be a fine thing if all the Roads would club in and build one grand, capacious warehouse for the deposit of all the freights arriving at or departing from the city, with rooms for passengers, and all the Ticket offices in the same building.

THE rumor has reached this city, by what means we have not ascertained, that Rev. Peter Doub died in Greensborough on Tuesday night. It is known that his health has been giving way for some time, and that he has recently been quite ill.

THE Evangelical Lutheran Church was dedicated in Wilmington, on Sunday. The four ministers called to perform the ceremony were Rev. Mr. Burnheim, of Mt. Pleasant, Rev. Mr. Burnheim, of Charlotte, Rev. Mr. Miller, of Charleston, and Rev. Mr. Julian, of Company Shops.

THE NEW ECLECTIC MAGAZINE for September, besides much other interesting matter, contains the opening chapters of a sparkling new tale, called A Story of Eulenberg—a Poem of great elegance and tenderness, by John R. Thompson, read at the last meeting of the Alumni of the University of Virginia, (every graduate should have a copy.) An able article on The Positive Philosophy, by Mr. Lawrence C. Johnson, of Hollywood Springs, Mississippi.—Brigandage in Mexico, by a Southerner, for many years a resident in that Country. A Poem, by William Morris, author of The Earthly Paradise. The Haversack, giving anecdotes of the Confederate Army, and a handsome tribute to their bravery, from an English source. Reviews on the New Books of the Month. The Green Table and Monthly Miscellany. Short Tales, Anecdotes, etc. Address, TURNBULL & MURDOCH, Baltimore, enclosing $4 00, the price of annual subscription.

CUP PRESENTATION.—On yesterday evening the Hornet Fire Company, in token of the high esteem which they entertain for Miss Cora Johnston, presented her, through their President, Mr. M. L. Wriston, a handsome silver cup, bearing an appropriate inscription. The recipient responded in a very handsome manner, when her father, Col. William Johnston, addressed the company in his usual felicitous style. The Brass Band was also in attendance and discoursed splendid music.—Char. Times.

SALE OF LAND.—Mr. Thos. Grier, the Administrator of the late Maj. Z. A. Grier, recently sold at auction the lands of the deceased, located in Steel Creek, 8 or 10 miles from Charlotte. Some of it brought $49 an acre, and all of it averaged over $14 per acre.—Char. Democrat.

ROBBERY.—The store house of Messrs. Vick & Mebane, on North Water street, was broken into on Friday night last and about 500 lbs. Western bacon stolen therefrom. The thieves effected an entrance by breaking open the door with a crowbar.—Wil. Journal.

FIRE AND LOSS OF LIFE.—We regret to learn that the fine Flouring Mill of Colonel J. Cathey, on Pigeon River, with the Col.'s wheat crop of this year, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday night, last. While we regret the loss of property, we still more deeply regret the loss of a most valuable citizen, Mr. George Bryson, the miller, who was burned to death in the mill.—Asheville Pioneer.

REMARKABLE LONGEVITY.—There is a mulattress living on Mattamuskeet Lake, Hyde county, who is one hundred and twenty years old. This old woman is still hale and active and has a full command of her faculties. She is, probably, the oldest person in the country.—Jour. Com.

Corn in Newbern is selling at $1 to $1.10.

We learn from the Wilmington Journal that the Foreman of the Post was accidentally shot in a tender part of his body, on Monday, but the wound is not likely to prove fatal.

PROBABLE MURDER.—A difficulty occurred at the plantation of Dr. S. S. Satchwell, near Rocky Point, on Saturday last, between Geo. W. Anderson, and another man, name not ascertained, both colored, in which the latter was seriously if not fatally injured. Anderson was yesterday arrested and lodged in jail at this place, to await the result of the other's injuries.—Wil. Journal.

The negro route mail agent, Hopkins, recently appointed by the President, was arrested at Jackson, Tennessee, on Wednesday and taken to Memphis on an indictment for forgery.

The hot dry weather is burning up the tobacco and corn crops of lower Kentucky. Without good rains there will be a heavy falling off in both. Reports from the Green river country are unfavorable.

GEN. CANBY AND THE VIRGINIA LEGISLATURE—WHY GEN. GRANT IS SILENT.

The Walker anti-radical party of Virginia, in the late election in that State, secured a large majority of the members to both houses of the Legislature, whereby this party have been counting upon two United States Senators. It appears, however, that after deducting the Walker members of the Legislature who cannot take the iron-clad oath of loyalty the Wells Radicals will have a majority in both branches. It further appears that Gen. Canby, military commander of Virginia as the first Southern Military District, in the exercise of his judgment has determined to enforce the iron-clad oath, and that where the Legislative member elect cannot meet this oath the Commanding General intends to recognize his loyal competitor (radical) as duly elected. Under this process two radical United States Senators will be secured.

Now, comparing this course of General Canby in Virginia with his policy in South Carolina it would appear that sauce for the goose is not sauce for the gander. Naturally enough the Virginia Walker party are much incensed against Gen. Canby. We understand that they have applied to Gen. Grant to reverse this military rolling of the district commander, but that so far the President has declined to interfere. But if he should interfere and order the recognition of all the Walker members of the Legislature, what would follow? The election of two Walker liberals to the national Senate. But what then? The national Senate (radical,) which is the final judge of the elections and qualifications of its own members, falling back upon the iron clad oath, would doubtless reject these two Walker Senators; and here, we inter, is the reason why General Grant declines to interfere with General Canby. It means that Gen. Grant has cut the Walker new school republicans and intends to stick to the regular republican camp, and that on this line he is moving for the succession, with the game so far in his hands.

Special Notices.

"Fresh as a Maiden's Blush" is the pure peachy Complexion which follows the use of Hagan's Magnolia Balm. It is the True Secret of Beauty. Fashionable Ladies in Society understand this.

The Magnolia Balm changes the rustic Country Girl into a City Belle more rapidly than any other one thing.

Redness, Sunburn, Tan, Freckles, Blotches and all effects of the Summer Sun disappear where it is used, and a genial, cultivated, fresh expression is obtained which rivals the Bloom of Youth. Beauty is possible to all who will invest 75 cents at any respectable store and insist on getting the Magnolia Balm.

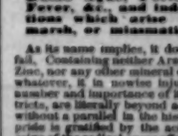
Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.



The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are of a truly marvellous character. Inveterate cases of Scrofula, where the system seemed utterly given up to corruption, have yielded to this compound of anti-strumous virtues. Disorders of a scrofulous type, and affections which are merely aggravated by the presence of scrofulous matter, have been radically cured in such numerous instances, in every settlement in the country, that the public do not need to be informed here that it is in most cases a specific and absolute remedy.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develop into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver. These facts make the occasional use of the Sarsaparilla as a preventive, advisable.

It is a mistake to suppose that so long as no eruptions or humors appear, there must be no scrofulous taint. These forms of derangement may never occur, and yet the vital forces of the body be so reduced by its subtle agency, as materially to impair the health and shorten the duration of life. It is a common error, also, that scrofula is strictly hereditary. It does, indeed, descend from parent to child, but is also engendered in persons born of pure blood. Low living, indigestion, foul air, licentious habits, uncleanness, and the depressing vices generally, produce it. Weakly constitutions, where not fortified by the most constant and judicious care, are peculiarly liable to it. Yet the robust, also, whose turbid blood swells the veins with an apparently exuberant vitality, are often contaminated, and on the road to its consequences. Indeed, no class or condition can depend on immunity from it, nor feel insensible to the importance of an effectual remedy.

In St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, for Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Ears and Eyes, and other eruptive or visible forms of the diseases caused primarily by the scrofulous infection, the Sarsaparilla is an efficient as to be indispensable. And in the more concealed forms, as in Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and other affections of the muscular and nervous systems, the Sarsaparilla, through its purifying power, removes the cause of the disorder and produces astonishing cures.

The sarsaparilla root of the tropics does not by itself achieve these results. It is aided by the extracts combined with it, of still greater power. The potent is this union of healing virtues, Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations, and Female Diseases in general, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by the invigorating and purifying effect of our Sarsaparilla. Rheumatism and Gout, often dependent on the accumulation of extraneous matters in the blood, have their remedy also in this medicine. For Liver Complaints, torpidity, inflammation, abscess, etc., caused by rankling poisons in the blood, we unhesitatingly recommend the Sarsaparilla.

This medicine restores health and vigor where no specific disease can be distinguished. Its restorative power is soon felt by those who are Languid, Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and filled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or who are troubled with any other of those affections symptomatic of weakness. Many, after taking it for General Debility, have written us of the youthful vigor imparted to their nervous system, which seemed lost, and with that prolific life they thought had departed on the advance of age. Others, whose fountains of life were always sterile, acknowledge their obligations to it for an obvious change.

Ayer's Ague Cure,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

AS ITS name implies, it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in nowise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or travelling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.

A LUNATIC CHAINED TO A WALL FOR SIXTY YEARS.

A shocking case of cruelty to, and detention of, a lunatic has just been brought to light in Leicestershire, Eng. It appears to have been known that a lunatic named John Bagley Wylde, a relative of the late Mr Wylde, a magistrate, of Costock, near Nottingham, had for some years past been in the care of a small farmer named Henry Black, who occupied a farm at Sheepshed, near Loughborough, Leicestershire; but the circumstance and other facts connected with his incarceration were not brought to the knowledge of the chief constable until a few days ago.

The latter commmunicated with the Commissioners in Lunacy, and a commissioner, Dr. Buck, of the Leicester and Rutland County Lunatic Asylum, Mr. E. Warner, J. P., and Superintendent Hague paid a visit to Mr. Black's farm house at Sheepshed. On entering the living room a sad scene presented itself. Seated on, and chained to a chair by his wrists was a poor idiotic man, 74 years of age. His legs were also secured by manacles, and the chair was in turn chained to the wall. This position he occupied all day, even when partaking of his meals. Visiting his bedroom, the gentleman found that at night he was subjected to similar cruelty. There were leg-irons at the foot of the bed, and it seemed that at night irons also encircled his legs and wrists. The wretched man, however, is said to have been treated kindly in other respects, and his well nourished, healthy, and perfectly clean form showed that he had been well attended to. In answer to inquiries, Black stated that the man had been insane since he was 14 years of age; that he had been in his custody, as found, for the past thirty years, and that for thirty years previously he had been in charge of another custodian and chained in the way described. Black also stated that he received £1 a week for the maintenance of his charge. From the appearance of Wylde it seemed as if his confinement, with all its dreadful accompaniments, for so long a period had lost its terrors for him; for when released from his chains he exhibited no joy whatever. Information was at once laid against Black for not taking proper care of Wylde, and the same day he appeared before Mr. Warner and Mr. Johnson, two magistrates of the Loughborough bench, to answer to it. The result was that Wylde was at once removed to the Leicester and Rutland Asylum at Leicester, where he is to remain for the present in charge of Dr. Buck. As to Black, no further proceedings have as yet been taken against him.

QUARRELING OVER A CORPSE.—Saturday morning last Mrs. Ann Sutton, sixty years of age, died suddenly at her residence in New York, of dysentery, but, as no physician had been in attendance, Coroner Flynn was notified, and, an inquest having been held, a burial permit was granted and given to William Kennedy, an undertaker. Here a new phase was given the case, which is thus explained by the Times of yesterday:

"Up to this time the deceased appeared to have been utterly friendless, no one manifesting the slightest interest in the disposal of the remains, but the coroner discovering her bank books, which showed that she had died possessed of about $800, friends, and even relatives, sprung up with the rapidity of mushrooms. Not only that, but the revelation stirred up one Reed, another undertaker, to activity, and when Kennedy reached the house he found his rival in possession. A wrangle ensued between the two claimants of the emoluments accruing from burying the body, and was kept up with such vigor and persistency that some of the friends appealed to Inspector Walling, at the central police office, to interfere so that the body might be disposed of. That officer, however, had no right to interfere, and up to a late hour yesterday the quarrel continued, to the scandal and annoyance of the neighborhood.

SCIENCE has been reduced to a fine point. At the general session of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, at Salem, telegraph wires which had been put in connection with some of the patients at the City Hospital in Boston, were so manipulated as to transmit the fluctuations of their pulses, which were faithfully indicated by the click of the instruments in the hall, and by the aid of a magnesium light the exact motion of the blood was depicted by a little circle of light cast upon a darkened wall. After this it was demonstrated to the ear by the ringing of two little telegraphic bells, showing the two different sounds of the beating heart.

A child was born in Syracuse, New York, about nine months ago, whose mother was ill at the time, of consumption. From its birth, it followed the physical condition of its mother with marvelous precision.—Would she be taken with vomiting, the child would be afflicted in the same manner; did her health improve for a few weeks, marked improvement was noticed in the child; when her health declined, the child's would also begin to decline at nearly the same time. A short time since the mother was taken much worse; the symptoms of the child were of a similar character. Finally the mother died, and only a few seconds after breathing her last, the child followed into eternity.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED THE REPRESENTATIVE OF THE LONDON LIVERPOOL AND GLOBE INS. CO. WHOSE CAPITAL AMOUNTS TO $17,000,000 IN GOLD.

I am now prepared to Insure all kinds of

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE BUILDINGS, RAILROAD DEPOTS, SHOPS, ROLLING STOCK, BRIDGES AND TRACKS, FACTORIES FOUNDERIES, MILLS AND MERCHANDISE.

IN ANY PART OF NORTH CAROLINA AT EXCEEDING LOW RATES.

I will when desired issue Permanent Policies which insures the property specified forever, unless the assured chooses to cancel his Policy in which event all the premium he has paid will be returned less five per. centum.

The loss of a Court House or other Public Building at the present time would be a public calamity, whereas a trifling amount paid for a polic WILL SECURE A SUFFICIENT SUM TO REBUILD SHOULD THE PROPERTY BE DESTROYED BY FIRE.

The Age of Progress.

We publish to-day, the first scheme in the sale of Real and Personal Estate—a Company chartered by the last Legislature, with a capital of one hundred and thirty thousand dollars, and with power to increase that amount to five hundred thousand dollars. An examination of the charter satisfies us that the Company is pursuing a legitimate business; they are empowered to "dispose of Real and Personal Estate in any mode or form they may deem best," and "all laws, or clauses of laws, coming in conflict with said charter are hereby repealed." This is plain and unmistakable English, and we have no doubt the transactions of the Company will prove beneficial to the property holders of North Carolina. For example: Mr. A. owns a piece of real estate which he wishes to dispose of. He throws it upon the market, and fails to get a bid that would warrant him in making a deed. He then places it in the hands of the North Carolina Real and Personal Estate Agency, at a fair valuation, and the property is sold by chance—the owner gets his price—the Company a fair and reasonable compensation for selling—and some poor man, for two dollars comes in possession of a homestead, which, under any other circumstances, he would not have owned.

In fact, we do not view the Company as a Lottery—it is what it purports to be, a simple Agency for the sale of property, for its true value, which, otherwise would be sacrificed.

We refer our readers to the advertisement—the splendid real estate offered, and the other rich prizes, amounting in all to THREE THOUSAND AND ONE—and the reader will perceive, by the simple rule of division, that there is one prize to every twenty-four tickets.

The General Agent of the Company has given us a call, and assures us, that the success of the Company is no longer a problem. In thirty-five counties through which he has just traveled, he represents the people as being enthusiastic in favor of it—both as to investing, and the placing of property in the hands of the Company for sale. He represents total already, before the first grand drawing has taken place, applications to sell, amounting to half a million dollars, are on file in the Secretary's office.

We learn from the Raleigh papers, that the explanatory drawing which took place in the city of Raleigh, on Saturday last, passed off to the decided satisfaction of a large audience assembled in Tucker Hall to witness it.—Wil. Post.

One three cent stamp must accompany every order. All tickets will have the seal of the Company and signature of the Secretary.

☞ We refer to any Merchant, Banker or other gentleman of standing in the city of Raleigh. For further description and particulars, address

JOHN SKINNER,
SECRETARY.
